"Working to reduce sexual exploitation & victimization of women, children and families"

Dear Faithful Friends and Supporters,
On Friday, October 5th, LICCV held its 13th Annual Fundraising Banquet at the Huntington Hilton in Melville. Our theme was Mission:

Impossible ... without your help! The evening was filled with many special guests, presentations and performances. Many thanks to David Jack and Alex Knight for their entertaining and informative video.

Opera singer Jeanette Vechionne gave a stirring rendition of the National Anthem, and later thrilled the audience with her performance of the aria Vissi d'arte from Tosca. Classical musicians Matt Pastor and Jacqueline Steffans provided beautiful chamber music during our meal. Recently crowned Ms. USA 2007, Sophia Hall, who has graciously taken on the role as LICCV Spokesperson, shared her vision of encouraging volunteerism in our communities. Honoree and guest speaker Kevin McCullough passionately high-lighted what is happening in the national political arena regarding the pornography industry and potential presidential candidates, and stressed the urgency of fighting this battle in our communities.

As is our custom, each year we honor and recognize elected officials and members of the community who have been champions of the fight against pornography. During the past 13 years LICCV has enjoyed a close working relationship with the Town Council of Huntington. Councilwoman Jo-Ann Raia joined us and shared her passion for keeping Long Island a safe place to live. Also in attendance from the Council were Glenda Jackson, Stuart Besen and Mark Cuthbertson. Senator Charles I. Fuschillo, Jr. has also been a great friend to LICCV, and is deeply committed to fighting the battle against pornography and keeping our children and communities safe. Accepting a Certificate of Appreciation on his behalf was Michael Arens.

A Certificate of Appreciation was presented to Liz Wellbrock, for her volunteer work and dedication to LICCV during the past 13 years, and to her late husband, Ronnie Wellbrock, our greatly beloved Treasurer. Mike & Lyn Livi and Tommy & Gina Carrano were also thanked for their contributions to LICCV. Sheriff Vincent DeMarco of Suffolk County. Sheriff DeMarco and LICCV recently worked together to coordinate the free distribution of 40,000 copies of "Computer Cop" - an Internet safety software package for families. Sheriff DeMarco also announced the upcoming availability of another 10,000 copies for free distribution.

Ms. USA, Sophia Hall

Our right-hand couple for the past nine years and leaders of the Clean Hands, Pure Heart ministry, Peter & Josephine Strobl, were honored for their years of co-laboring with us, as they plan to relocate to Tennessee. They helped us through many hard times during Bobby's illnesses over the years, and will be greatly missed. Joe and Teresa Ferraiuolos will be coming on board to assist LICCV and the Clean Hands, Pure Heart ministry.

To our great delight and surprise, Assemblyman Andrew P. Raia presented Bobby with the New York State Assembly Excelsior Award. The award reads in part" ... a Great State is only as great as those persons who strive to better the lives of families on Long Island and throughout New York State; who provide exemplary service to the community; a joyous spirit; and numerous other endeavors through commitment to good citizenship." Our thanks to Assemblyman Raia for his support and recognition of the mission of LICCV, and to our many other friends, pastors and supporters who were in attendance that night We could not do it without you!

As 2007 will shortly be drawing to a close, please consider making a generous end of year' contribution to LICCV. An envelope has been enclosed for your convenience.

Standing Together Opposing Pornography,

Robert Lloyd
